ROBT. E. KING IS NOT A DRAFT EVADER

Robert Estus King, the Weber county registrant who was thought to be a fugitive from the draft law, walked into the county office today and announced himself ready for service. King was a herder for a local livestock company and, when summoned to appear for examination, did not do so.

He was next heard of in Jackson, Miss., and a letter addressed to him from the local board told him to show up immediately or be prosecuted as a deserter. From King's story it appears that he was the victim of unfortunate circumstances and that he was trying voluntarily to evade the draft.

POLLS OPEN AT 7 O'CLOCK TOMORROW MORNING AND WILL CLOSE AT 7 P. M.

The complete official list of polling places tomorrow will be found in another part of this issue of the Standard, as well as a map of the city showing the different precincts in the city. By a glance at this map, a person may decide in that district he resides and where he is to go to vote.

It is expected that the vote will be much lighter than it was last election. There are no automobiles to take one to the polls. There will be no callers at the different homes, urging voters to turn out and vote for a certain candidate. There can be none of this again in the politics of the state, because of the act passed by the last legislature called the Corrupt Practices Act. It has placed the entire responsibility of election on the individual voters, who must now assume the responsibility of casting their vote for their favorite candidate, without outside influences. It places the politics more nearly in the hands of the people than ever before.

SIXTEEN TRAINED SOLICITORS TO CANVASS CITY IN DRIVE FOR SECOND LIBERTY LOAN

Sixteen trained solicitors started work today canvassing the city in the interests of the second liberty loan. This force added to the committees of the clearing house and other workers will form an invincible array of bond sellers. The new force is composed of members of the local office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company and will include the following: George D. Bennett, superintendent; W. R. Poulter, Clarence Flinders, Otto Jensen, Grant Brown, H. Olsen, Parley Norseth, Joseph Wallace, L. Dine, R. C. Miller, Dan Olsen, C. A. Rasmussen, Lester Bybee, Clarence Bramwell, C. A. Raymond and F. D. Baird.

YOUNG MEN ARRESTED ONE OF THE CATTLE AND SHEEP KINGS OF GRAND COUNTY AND HELD AS DRAFT EVADERS

Two men were arrested this morning by Deputy Sheriff William Brown on suspicion as evaders of the draft law. They gave their names as George W. Jones of Wichita, Kans., and Millard Clark of Clifty, Ark.

Both men claim to be under age for the draft regulations. Jones says he is but 17, but he looks much older and the officers believe he is at least 21. Clark says he is 19 years of age and will be 20 on January 15, 1918. Communications will be sent to the homes of both young men to ascertain if they are really under draft age.

GEORGE R. NEWMAN WRITES LETTER FROM CAMP KEARNEY

George R. Newman of Ogden, who saw service on the Mexican border, and is now at Camp Kearney, Linda Vista, Cal., with the 146th, has written his parents here a very interesting letter concerning the camp life there.

"We are all well and happy and still kicking," he says. "This camp is certainly a wonderful place. Our tents are all boarded up and comfortable and our surroundings are as near home-like as it is possible to make them under the conditions. We have electric lights and other comforts in our tents. The Y. M. C. A., established here, presents moving picture shows, entertainments and boxing matches for our diversion and there is always something to be done."

Three Afternoons Off. "We have Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday afternoons to ourselves and all of the boys who can go to San Diego and down to the bay and enjoy themselves immensely."

"By the time we are ready to leave this camp we shall have a good bunch of soldiers. Our regiment stands high in this camp and all over the country. Most of the boys are anxious to get to France. Our band certainly is a good one and it makes the other bands pay attention whenever it plays."

Buying of Liberty Bonds. "We are all taking out Liberty bonds in our camp. We have taken out $9,950 in our battery alone. Our third section took out $1,100 alone, so I think that is not doing so bad. We are trying to make first place in the bond subscription campaign and I hope we do it. I have taken a $50 bond, but will take another."

There are bath houses and other conveniences here which make camp life easy. The mess halls are immense and we eat the best of food. This certainly beats the Mexican border. They blast here every day, however, so it makes one feel as though he is on the firing line."

I went down to San Diego Wednesday and it is a nice little city. There were five of us in the party and we met an old gentleman who treated us fine. He bought us two sacks of white grapes and a big sack of figs and then took us out to his home and entertained us. He invited us to come again Sunday afternoon, when he said his daughter would entertain us with some music. Is there any one in Ogden who would do this much for five soldiers do you think?"

Pattern Hats

Tomorrow is the opening day of the sale of pattern hats. Tomorrow every table in the Millinery Dep't on 2nd floor, will be resplendent with the handsomest millinery that has been produced this season.

Of course every one is an exclusive model,—many of them have not even been seen before in Ogden. These are the hats for smart afternoon wear—for full dress evening occasions. For the street, when one wishes to appear at one's very best. Besides some ultra fashionable, late arrivals, this sale will affect every hat in the store. Which means that you may take your unrestricted choice of the stock—including values to $25.—the sale price will be $11.75. And with any of the hats you may buy at this price, there will be at your service, our expert service department, to make changes of slight alterations should we decide that such changes will improve the hat to the individual requirements of the buyer.

Deaths and Funerals

SAWYER—India M. Sawyer died Saturday night at 9:30 o'clock. She was born December 19, 1867, at Independence, Mo., and leaves a husband, Harry D. Sawyer, and one son, Fred H. She was a member of Queen Esther chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Excelsior Camp No. 3240, Royal Neighbors and a Rebekah lodge of Chicago. Funeral will be held at Masonic Temple Thursday at 2:30 p. m., under the auspices of the Eastern Star. Rev. Carver will officiate. Interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

WONG SING SLOW—A Chinese resident of Ogden died at 253 Twenty-fifth street at 12 o'clock noon yesterday. The body is at Larkin & Son's morgue, pending funeral arrangements.

HUTCHENS—The funeral of William A. Hutchens was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Lyman ward meeting house, Bishop L. W. Sherman officiating. Mr. Hutchens was electrocuted last Wednesday at Lemay, Utah. The speakers were P. A. Bliss, superintendent of signal maintenance of the Southern Pacific, Patriarch George W. Larkin, L. M. Malan and Bishop Sherman. The benediction was pronounced by W. W. Crane. A duet was given by Bernice Burk and May Jones, and by Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Brian, a solo by Annie Williamson Brian, and a selection by the ward choir. The funeral was attended by Woodmen of the World and Daughters of the Mormon Battalion, who attended in a body. The ritual service of the Woodmen was delivered at the grave in the Ogden city cemetery. E. A. Larkin dedicated the grave.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The historical society met last Saturday afternoon at the University club rooms, Washington avenue and Twenty-sixth street.

The president, Mrs. W. H. Meal, and Mrs. D. H. Adams were hostesses. After listening to an interesting talk by Mrs. H. B. Johnston on American Red Cross work, the historical members decided to do their part. The president appointed the following committees to have charge of the work: Knitting, Mrs. Lewis Kabbell; sewing, Mrs. D. H. Adams; Christmas boxes, Mrs. J. J. Malone.

The society voted unanimously to help the high school cafeteria by giving fruit, the ladies to notify Mrs. V. C. Gunnell as to number of pairs they wish to give.

The president appointed as delegates to the Federation clubs: Mesdames J. A. McGee, Robert Reynolds and S. S. Smith.

A very interesting and instructive program was given, as follows:

Mrs. L. N. Laning gave a reading on pre-historic Utah.

A poem, entitled, "Utah," was read by Mrs. J. R. Morrell.

Mrs. Archie Decker sang in her pleasing manner, "Utah, We Love Thee," being accompanied on the piano by Mrs. T. Don Beeson.

Mrs. Josephine Hirst gave a splendidly prepared paper, "History of Utah," which was printed in full in

EAGLES SMOKER ON SATURDAY NIGHT

Fifteen rounds of boxing were presented by the Eagles, Saturday night, at their smoker. A number of Eagles and their friends gathered for the event and were entertained most cordially. The main event was between Kid Davis and Billy Johnson, the latter being known as the fighting Eagle. This Kid Davis is like a rubber injun and Billy pounded him with rights and lefts and on all parts of his anatomy where he could lawfully do so, without causing the boy any distress. Johnson led the fight and scored a number of clean punches but Davis was not even fazed. Johnson has been gaining in popularity steadily for some time in Ogden and should prove a good card if he chooses to follow up his ring work. This fight was a draw.

Another event which was interesting was an exhibition between Kid Cherry who will box Lee Morrissey tomorrow night at the armory, and Kid Herd of Ogden. This Cherry showed himself to possess lightning speed and clever tactics and gave those present an itch to see him really in action against the Morrissey boy.

Young Judy and Jeff O'Connell were in a three-round event which was interesting. The boys secured a draw because neither could do much toward a victory in the short time afforded. They mixed well, however.

Kid Smith and Young Sandy staged a three-round match as a curtain raiser. The Eagles were somewhat handicapped by their scheduled preliminaries not showing up, but put on a good exhibition nevertheless. A battle royal, preceding the main event, proved the laugh of the evening. Four Eagles whaled one another for a few short minutes right manfully, the fight ending when only one man stood up.

A merger report was sent the sheriff's office this afternoon from Warren to the effect that a farmer's wife of that district, Mrs. Clark, had been held up and robbed. No details of the affair could be learned and deputies were immediately started to investigate and search for the alleged robber, who was described as wearing a black hat and black coat.
